REPERTORY PHILIPPINES LIVE WORKSHOP RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Every enrolment slot is important. No refunds.
2. Helpers and parents are discouraged from staying inside the workshop venue or observe the workshop classes. It may distract the child. A designated area next to the classroom will be available for parents and yayas to wait.
3. Teachers may extend class hours at some point during the summer program, if they see a need, especially as they near performance date. Students and parents will be informed by the class instructors.
4. The culminating showcase is part of the curriculum and as such, roles for the showcase will be assigned by the instructors at their discretion in whichever way they feel it best benefits the student. Conduct and attitude during class will be taken into consideration but is not the sole basis of the teachers' decision.
5. Teachers may decide not to assign roles to students leaving for vacations for any period of time during the workshop schedule.
6. Repertory Philippines reserves the right to expel any student without reimbursement for any of the following reasons:
 - Excessive and repeated tardiness and absences
 - Any kind of misconduct
7. Students are encouraged to clock in 10 minutes before classes begin.
8. No loitering at the Manila Polo Club grounds. Go directly to the classroom.
9. Please submit Vaccination Cards (if child is vaccinated); if not, a weekly negative Antigen Swab Test result is allowed for students age 16 and below. Adults are required to submit Vaccination Cards.
10. Masks are to be worn throughout the duration of the class.
11. Bring your water bottles and snacks. Eating will be at a designated area.

I understand and acknowledge the workshop rules stated above and promise to abide by them at all times.
